

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Thursday, January 24, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

AG: Law says gov. must trim Medicaid

South may be on brink of recovery, economist says

Lott still pushing White House agenda

HUD help coming to rural communities

Lee County lawmaker checks out of hospital

Hyundai president in and out

Congress resurrects economic stimulus

Partisan politics in redistricting tiring

Doctors upset over premiums don't deserve sympathy

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

USM-GC expansion still on hold

Hyundai's 'Project Beach' teases Coast

Public needs help to keep the doors to meetings open

Carving slices of the state's political pie

Medical crisis? Not according to lawyers in the Legislature

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Moore says Musgrove breaking state law on Medicaid shortfall

Subcommittee to examine tort reform

Holland proposes teddy bear as official state toy

Hyundai officials visit U.S. as Mississippi gives tours

Economic optimism - State and national indices offer encouraging outlook

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

State courts billion-dollar Hyundai plant

A word about state politics

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Additional HUD designation could happen

HUD designations are belated Christmas gifts

Read Our View

Let's not turn state into wedding capital of South

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Survey lends support to tort reform

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

Musgrove ignoring law, says Moore, on Medicaid

Barbour's drumbeat signals run for governor

The New York Times

The Washington Post